Remarks

Under contract-accepting backup offers. Nestled within the esteemed University Estates community, this impressive two-story home offers an abundance of sought-after features. Boasting four bedrooms, two full bathrooms, two half bathrooms, an expansive three-car garage, and a dedicated office space, this property offers generous space for luxurious living. Notably, this residence is one of just ten homes on Lake Mallard that enjoys a prime central position with unrivaled views. The house has been thoughtfully upgraded with custom closets and exquisite crown molding. Recent improvements include the replacement of AC units in both 2019 and 2020, a new roof, screens, and water heater installed in 2021, and the addition of a brand-new range and refrigerator in November 2022. The home's location is incredibly convenient, with close proximity to public schools, shopping centers, restaurants, hospitals, the UCF campus, and major highways. The community itself is tranquil and impeccably maintained, creating a serene and delightful living environment. All in all, this remarkable University Estates residence offers a spacious and well-maintained living space with unrivaled features, making it the perfect choice for those in search of comfort, convenience, and elegance.
